Dear Eucharistic Assistants,

I hope you're enjoying this summery weather. The pastors thank you for being willing to serve communion Wednesday evenings. Your presence is so helpful to them.

Here is your summer schedule. Please note the services begin at 7:00 p.m. rather than 5:45.

If you are unable to serve on the evening I have scheduled you, please change with each other and call the church with the change by Wednesday morning. If no one is able to serve, please alert me so I can tell the pastor. If you are not able to serve during the summer, please contact me also. The summer series with John Koziol and the musicians are very enjoyable, and there's a free mini concert and ice cream too.

Please check in with a pastor before the service so they know you're there. We also ask that you wash your hands just before the communion. As you serve you may say, "This is the body and blood of Christ, given and shed for you." For the children, you may put your hand on their head and say, "The Lord bless you now and always."

Feel free to call or e-mail me with any questions or suggestions.
